IT IS WITH GREAT PLEASURE THAT WE INVITE YOU TO BECOME A MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN COALITION FOR THE DIVERSITY OF CULTURAL EXPRESSIONS.

The Canadian Coalition for the Diversity of Cultural Expressions (CDCE) has been the voice of Canada's cultural community for twenty-two years. Its main mission is to protect and promote the diversity of cultural expressions, both nationally and internationally.

The CDCE brings together 49 organizations representing the entire chain of culture, from creation to dissemination, in the fields of film, television, music, books, new media and the performing arts. It has the concerns of 360,000 professionals and 2,900 companies in the cultural sector.

The CDCE ensures the implementation of the Convention on the Protection and Promotion of the Diversity of Cultural Expressions adopted at UNESCO in 2005 and acts to give it full force of application at national scale.

The CDCE works primarily to ensure that cultural goods and services are excluded from trade negotiations and that the diversity of cultural expressions is present in the digital environment.

Its action aims to:

- Promote civil society consultation around its priorities and the challenges of the Convention;
- Monitor the Canadian government's trade negotiations to ensure compliance with the cultural goods and services exemption in trade agreements;
- Document the impacts and conditions surrounding the supply of online cultural content;
- Organize meetings and represent its members in the framework of the revision of laws and policies having an impact on the diversity of cultural expressions

At the international level, the Coalition provides the service of general secretariat to the International Federation of Coalitions for Cultural Diversity, composed of some thirty coalitions on five continents.

By becoming a member of the CDCE, you are joining not only one of Canada's most dynamic networks, but you are also closely involved in protecting the diversity of cultural expressions here and around the world.
